OLD BUSINESS

- Spoke with Penny at courthouse and have sent letters to auditors. Need write-ins at primary election. Because this is a municipal election year, they need write-ins to get on the ballot in November. If they do not receive enough write-ins to get on the ballot, the Supervisors can then appoint the auditors in December 2021.

NEW BUSINESS

- Pension/457(b). Will contact Matt Stroup at First Citizens and set up meeting at Township for all employees and Supervisors to be able to attend.
 - Erway Subdivision
- COVID money. Resolution will need to be signed. Amount Covington is to receive is $100,450.00. Not much information available currently. Discussion on what they would/could use the money for. Supervisors advised Secretary to order all the Hometown Hero Banners to get them all replaced. Will find someone with a bucket truck to volunteer their time or rent a truck for road crew to put banners up when they arrive.

INFORMATION / ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Primary Election – Office Closed – Tuesday, May 18, 2021
- Next Township meeting June 14, 2021 (Secretary advised will be out of town. Zoning Officer will attend meeting in place.)

Respectfully Submitted,

Nicole Bennett, Secretary
